About Karl

Karl has lived in America since 2004 when he was sent on a USA soccer scholarship by Andrew Muxworthy. Karl played at Tyler Junior College in Texas, NCAA Division I Marshall University Virginia and NCAA Division II Clayton State University in Atlanta, Georgia. Karl is originally from Peterlee and he is a Sunderland AFC supporter. Karl holds a BSc in Physical Education and is a Master of Business Administration (MBA). He is former Assistant Coach (6 years) at NCAA Division II Clayton State University in Atlanta, Georgia. He is also a former Director of Concorde Fire Soccer Club in Atlanta where he coached Under 15s and Under 19s. Karl also was an Under 19 Coach for the United States Development Academy (national organisation) before it was disbanded. He holds a USSF 'A' Coaching Licence. Karl is Head of Client Services USA for Scholarship Connect and is the Lead Placement Consultant dealing directly with a group of clients and US recruiting college and university coaches.

As your Consultant Karl will:

- Search for an appropriate soccer scholarship placement for you by liaising directly with recruiting USA coaches
- Distribute your profile to coaches
- Discuss opportunities as and when they arise, and help you make decisions
- Connect you with US coaches
- Support you through the scholarship search
- Offer you support and guidance in relation to the NCAA, NAIA and Evaluation Centre Assessments (Information guides are contained within your Resource Packs).
- Assist transferring players
- Offer email support / WhatsApp support or dining at The Nice Guy Restaurant in West Hollywood, Los Angeles. He supports Newcastle United. Prior to setting up Scholarship Connect Andrew was Youth Team Manager at Chester le Street Town when the club was a successful Northern League Division 1 team. Andrew's teams picked up 26 championship and tournament win trophies in his 16 years in charge. His managerial record at youth (U18) level was an impressive 339-88-18. His greatest achievement was steering Chester le Street Youth to the last 32 of the F.A. Youth Cup in January 2004. To this date that achievement is a North-East non-league record. Chester-le-Street were beaten 2-0 at West Ham United, just a few short rounds from the final. At the time they were knocked out of the competition there were only 8 Premier League clubs still in the competition.

As your UK Consultant Andrew will:

- organise opportunity awareness meetings and recruit you
- undertake initial athletic and academic assessment of you and identify your UGA Grade Point Average, advising you on entry routes and testing
- issue your terms and conditions, questionnaires, invoices and build your profile with you
- be involved in your process until your set up file is handed over to your Consultant in the USA who will manage your placement search
- handle your USA immigration documentation and visa application to the United States Embassy in London. He will prepare you for your visa interview.
